Gala Show: April 29-30, 2017!

Angelika Nemeth - April 29 - 30, 2017: 11:00 A.M. - 4:00 P.M

Angelika Nemeth has journeyed through the paths and roads of Oriental Dance, and has studied with many notables of Middle Eastern Dance in Egypt and the United States for the past two decades. She teaches workshops and lectures and has performed in Canada, England, Germany, Japan and throughout the USA. Since 1987 she has been producing critically acclaimed World Dance concerts at Orange Coast College in Costa Mesa, California. Throughout the 1980's and 90's, she performed in all the top Middle Eastern restaurant/night clubs in the Los Angeles area, and has graced the magazine covers of Jareeda and Habibi and on Jalaedin's Volume III album cover. She has also appeared on numerous dance videos like Raja Zahr's Dancing Live to Raja or her own, Angelika and Ensemble Live in Concert.

Angelika produces wonderful shows that feature ethnic dance forms that related to Middle Eastern Dance, i.e., Flamenco and East Indian. By showcasing both Spanish and classical Indian dance in these concerts, she has been instrumental in expanding the World Dance Program at OCC. She has produced beautiful, professional quality concerts, which not only entertained, but also educated the public at large about the variety and scope of Middle Eastern Dance. Angelika's work at OCC has had a major impact on Middle Eastern dance in Southern California and has contributed to the growing worldview of this dance as an art form. Hundreds of students have danced in her recitals/concerts since their inception in 1977, and many have gone on to become Oriental dance teachers and performers.

And now, Angelika returns to South Florida to teach a wonderful weekend seminar! Saturday's seminar will cover some internal movements into your belly dance (2 hours) that focuses on breath work, muscle identification and contractions mostly core (abdomen & pelvis), inner thigh & arm muscles, balance techniques, concentration, and relaxation. The 2nd part of Saturday will be Oriental technique and combinations including turns & veil entrance work. Sunday's seminar will cover a 4:40 min choreography harkening back to the Nagwa Fouad days. The choreography to "Set El Hosen", will include some of the combinations that will be taught on Saturday plus performing tips. For more information on Angelika as an artist, check out her website at www.angelikanemeth.com.
